Ellis had but one musket, there were from twenty to thirty Europeans present. Thereader will now see the point. If Ellis this blow, much less could he have done so, had he held no musket at all. Mr. F. B. Fairley, sub-accountant in the Oriental Bank, witnessed the fracas at an earlier stage than Mr. Ray, for he deposed that he saw one European constable strike the sailor in the scuffle, and one of the Indians dragging the prisoner by the hair: witness saw Ellis deliberately raises musket and with both hands on the barrel strike the sailor a very heavy blow which felled him. Witness heard something crash, but whether it was the musket or the man's head, he could not tell. Was positive Ellis had but one musket. MI. W. S. Riddell, a clerk in the Oriental 10th inst. at Noon. Mails close at 11 Bank, corroborated Mr Fairley's evidence, adding that the blow which Ellis gave the sailor was so heavy that he shuddered, fancying the sailor was killed by it.

Mr. Sangeter of the Registrar General's office, gave corroborative testimony, adding that he was of opinion that the musket was broken by the force of the blow. There were numbers of other most respectable witnesses, but it was naturally deemed a waste of time to call them. So here we have the other side of the story, which is this: a poor sailor obtained leave, and becoming dead drunk lay down on the club steps. Five policemen attempted to take him to the station, but not understanding that heanch of their duty, they abused him shamefully, Which side of the story is true? If any

NEW MEDICINES! THE GREATEST SUCCESS OF THE AGE!!!

TO MORE COD-LIVER OIL' SYRUP OF IODIZED HORSE-RADISH of GREMAULT and Co., Apothecaries and chemists, 7, Rue de la Feuillade. Paris. According to the certificates of the physicians of the Paris Hospitals, detailed in the prospectus, and with the approbation of several Academies, this Syrup is employed with the greatest success in place of Cod-liver Oil, to which it is really superior. It cures diseases of the chest, scrofule, lymphatic disorders, green. sickness, muscular atony, and loss of appetite, it regenerates the constitution by purifying tho blood, and is, in a word the most powerful depurative known. It never tangues the stomach and howels like the iodide of potassium and the iodide of iron, and is administered with the greatest efficacy to young children subject to humours, or obstruction of the glands. Dr. CAZENAVE, o Saint Louis hospital, Paris, recommends it particularly in cutaneous diseases conjointly with the pills which hear his name.

DHOSPHATE OF IRON. DE LERAS, apotheca ry. doctor of science, 7. Rue de la Feuillade. Paris. This new ferruginous medicine contains the elements of the bones and blood, and iron in a liquid state. From observations made in the Paris hospitals and detailed in the prospectus, it is superior to ferruginous pills, lactate of iron, fron reduced by hydrogen, pills and syrup of the todide of tron, and cures rapidly, stomach complaints, painful digestion, poverty of the blood, loss of strength and apoctite, and the diseases incident to females. It is the best adjunct to Con-Lives On, and the bost preserver of health in tropical climates.

DISEASES OF THE CHEST, SYBUP OF HYPOPHOSPHITE OF LIME, Manufactured by GRIHAULT and Co., chemists, 7, Rue de la Feuillade, Paris. This new medecine, delicious to the palate, is a sovereign remedy for coughs, colds, irritation of the lungs, and is also an excellent remedy in cases of consumption. Under its influence, the cough abates, nocturnal perspirations cease, and the patient rapidly recovers health and flesh.

PLIXIR OF PEPSINE prepared by GRIMAULT and Co., chemists, 7; Rue de la Feuillade. Paris, according to the formula of Br. Convigant. knight of the Legion of Honour, physician to H.M. the Emperor of the French. Parsing is the gastrio juice itself, or rather the digestive principle Frames SHEATHING FELT, ex " Young purified, which digests food in the stomach. When from various causes the supply of the-digestive fluid is too small, the inevitable consequences are bad digestion, gastritie, gastralgia; inflammation of the mucous coats of the stomach and bowels, heartburn, ancemia, loss of strength and in females, general derangement. The elixir of Pensine, which is sanctioned by the approbation of the Paris Academy of Medicine, epsedily cures all such diseases, and prevents vomiting during pregnancy.

INTERNAL OR LOCAL NEW CURATIVE AGENT. MATICO.

GRIMAULT & Co., PARIS. THIS new remedy is prepared from the leaves a Peruvian pepper shrub, called Matico, and CURES PROMPTLY and INFALLIBLE without may fear of inflammatory results. The great majority of Physicians in Paris. Prussis, Germany, and New York, now use no other remedy. Ful Directions accompany each Bottle and Packet;
